GATHERING

Welcome and Announcements:

L: Peace be with you. As the Father has sent Christ, so Christ sends us.
P: Though we have not seen, yet we believe. Help our unbelief.
L: Thomas said, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands, I will not believe."

P: Yet when he saw, he proclaimed, "My Lord and my God!"

L: Jesus said, "Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe."

P: Though we have not seen with our eyes, we believe with our hearts.

L: Our Lord and our God, we come to worship you!

All: These things are written so that we may believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that through believing we may have life in his name. Amen.

O God of life, you reach out to us amid our fears with the wounded hands of your risen Son. Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary and became truly human.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.
